Those three words are the signature features UNL’s Dining Services stands by.

Students can choose between a 5-day (Monday-Friday) or 7-day (Monday-Sunday) unlimited access meal plan. The 5-day and 7-day meal plans are centered on flexibility, as many centers have extended hours. Students can access any of the five dining centers with their student ID (NCard). Special dining hours (during holidays, breaks, etc.) are posted on the Housing home page.

UNL offers a variety of dining selections that include vegetarian and vegan entrees. Nutritional information is listed for menu items. Dining Centers feature events such as holiday meals and Good. Fresh. Local. menu items and dinners. Husker Hoagies are popular for take-and-go.

To change your meal plan, email Housing at: housing@unl.edu.
The last of the “cool, retro ’60s dining halls”, CPN provides students with many made-to-order items and is the City Campus home of Good. Fresh. Local. (GFL), the University of Nebraska–Lincoln Sustainable Food Project. CPN includes north and south dining areas, both offering unique qualities. The north dining room has a quieter atmosphere well suited to conversations and reading, while the south dining room is a more upbeat social environment with long wooden tables set up meeting hall style. CPN dining is staffed by a host of friendly unconventional characters whose smiles will brighten anyone’s day.
